Chapter 78 Section, 78-501, entitled “Generally”, of the City of Elk River, Minnesota, City Code

The City Council of the City of Elk River does hereby ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. That § 30-1, Definitions of the City of Elk River Code of Ordinances shall be amended to read as follows:

Dwelling, multiple-family, means a detached building containing two or more single-family dwelling units. Condominiums and cooperatively owned multiple residential dwellings are multiple-family dwellings for purposes of article VI of this chapter.

Educational institution means a public, parochial, or private institution that provides educational instruction to students.

Health care facility, inpatient means a facility where a patient receives medical treatment while being admitted for one or more nights, excluding hospitals.

Health care facility, outpatient means a facility where a patient receives medical treatment without being admitted overnight.

Hospital means an institution, licensed by the state department of health, providing primary health services and medical or surgical care to persons, primarily inpatients, suffering from illness, disease, injury, deformity, and other abnormal physical or mental conditions, and including as an integral part of the institution, related facilities such as laboratories, outpatient facilities, or training facilities.

Institutional facilities includes any of the following uses: educational institution, health care facility (inpatient or outpatient), or religious institutions.

Medical treatment means a patient receiving medical, dental, and/or optical treatment.

Religious institution means a church or place of worship or religious assembly with related facilities.

Residential, apartment means two or more dwelling units attached by a series of common or party walls, in which each unit has access to an inside common hallway and each unit may be for rent or owner-occupied.

Residential, multiple-family means two or more dwelling units attached by a series of common or party walls, in which each unit has its own front and/or rear access to the outside and each unit may be for rent or owner-occupied. Apartments and attached townhouses are not included.

Residential, single-family means one dwelling unit contained in a structure.

Residential facility means any facility, public or private, which, for gain or otherwise, regularly provides one or more persons with a 24-hour per day substitute for care, food, lodging, training, education, supervision, rehabilitation, habilitation, and treatment they need, but which for any reason cannot be furnished in the person's own home. Residential facilities include, but are not limited to, state institutions under the control of the state commissioner of public welfare, foster homes, residential treatment centers, maternity shelters, group homes, residential programs, or schools for handicapped children, except as specifically excluded in identical exclusions to those set forth in the definition of "day care facility" in this section, which are incorporated within this definition as though fully set forth herein. A residential facility does not provide medical treatment as defined in this section.

Townhouse, attached, means a one-family dwelling of at least four attached units in which each unit has its own access to the outside, no unit is located over another unit, and each unit is separated horizontally by a series of common or party walls. There shall be no more than six dwellings per structure in a row or no more than eight dwellings per structure if back-to-back.

SECTION 2. That § 30-383, Exemptions of the City of Elk River Code of Ordinances shall be amended to read as follows:

- (11) Mobile food units contracted by residential property owners for private parties where food is not sold to guests or any other members of the public. This exclusion does not include religious or educational uses in the residential zoning district where mobile food units are contracted to provide food for a public event.

SECTION 3. That § 30-938, Architectural standards of the City of Elk River Code of Ordinances shall be amended to read as follows:

(6) Buildings abutting residential, religious, educational uses, or place of assembly. All portions or sides of buildings which abut a public street, a residential zone, religious or educational uses, or place of assembly, such as a public park or recreational facility, shall be constructed of materials on the list of exterior building finishes in subsection (2)a of this section.

SECTION 4. That § 30-991, R-1 districts of the City of Elk River Code of Ordinances shall be amended to read as follows:

(b) Permitted uses . Permitted uses in the R-1 districts are as follows:

- f. Architectural standards. Architectural Standards are outlined in section 30-938.
- (3) North Business Park (C) .
- a. Purpose. Subzone "C" is established to encourage a planned, integrated environment for certain industrial, office, and commercial uses, which are compatible with and complement each other as well as the surrounding land uses. The underlying land use designation within the district may vary and may be either light industrial or highway business. Development within Subzone "C" will correspond with the land use designation. Industrial and office uses are allowed where the land use designation is light industrial, and commercial uses are allowed where the land use designation is highway business. It is the intent of this section that development reflects common themes using compatible architectural design and consistency in signage, landscaping, and lighting. It is also the intent to encourage businesses, which generate a high number of jobs per square foot rather than predominantly warehouse type uses.

- b. Permitted uses are as follow:
 - 1. All uses allowed as a permitted use in section 30-1294 (business park).
 - c. Accessory uses are as follows:
 - 1. All uses allowed as an accessory use in section 30-1294 (business park).
